

"a phenomenal weekend and the best Conference of the year"

Want to get more out of your diving? Advance your education? Expand your knowledge? Hear about some exciting and adventurous wreck and cave dives? Or do you just want to meet the 'Whose Who' of Technical Diving?

Come to EUROTEK.2010 on Saturday 16th & Sunday 17th October 2010

Held on a bi-annual basis at the International Convention Centre (ICC), Broad Street, Birmingham, England; EUROTEK has proved to be popular with a plethora of divers.

"I've been diving nearly 34 years and been to many Conferences and Shows, but this is the best I have been to by far. Organisation, Timing and brilliant seminar subjects".
Terry Goldie, UK EUROTEK.08 Delegate

Just about every major name that's anything to do with technical diving attends and many experienced divers fly in from Finland, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Germany, France, Italy, Spain, Ireland, USA and South Africa to take part.

"We travelled up from Cape Town and felt it was really worth the cost, pain and effort. I look forward to seeing you guys in two years". Nick Cunningham-Moorat, South African EUROTEK.08 Delegate

You don't need to be a deep techie diver to attend this, just a diver wanting to get more out of your diving. Spaces are limited, so to guarantee your place at EUROTEK.2010, don't leave it to the last minute, buy your ticket now or you could well end up very disappointed.

"The weekend was a brilliant success and my head is still buzzing with all the things that I saw and learnt (I drove my work colleagues mad yesterday by talking about it!)"
Joanna Murphy, UK EUROTEK.08 Delegate

Listen to a mouth-watering list of talks delivered by a top team of 30 international speakers, luminaries and diving legends, including;

" 'Graff Zeppelin' - Deep Wreck Divers explore Hitler's Aircraft Carrier"

"A look at the philosophy of diver survival"

"Getting started in CCR Diving"

"Physiology for Divers - Inwater Decompression"

"DPV's for Wreck and Cave Diving"

"The Gala Dinner was an experience and we had a lot of fun (great movie). I think next time we rent a big bus to come over!". Danny & Joni Huyge, Belgium EUROTEK.08 Delegates

Held on the evening of Saturday 16th October at the ICC, the EUROTEK.2010 Gala Awards Dinner is well worth attending. Over 200 delegates, along with Analox, Ambient Pressure Diving, Custom Divers, GUE, IANTD, MR Diving, South West Diving, Suunto, TDI and VR Technology have already booked tables for this years Dinner because they know they're in for a fantastic night.

"The Gala Dinner was a sight to behold and that "lost Deep Sea Detectives Episode was one of the funniest things I have ever seen. I really hope we can do this again".

Bruce Backhouse-Humby UK EUROTEK.08 Delegate

The (Black Tie/Long Posh Frock) Gala Dinner is truly good humoured and great fun. It's the perfect opportunity to network and socialise, catch up with some old friends and meet new people. You'd be made most welcome - we're all divers.

"I was looking forward to this event for a long time and certainly was not disappointed. All the Speakers presentations were first class, very good exhibitors, and the Gala Dinner was mind blowing. Looking forward to EUROTEK.2010". Dave Pelly UK EUROTEK.08 Delegate
